DAYS OF PRAYER &
FASTING

JANUARY 3RD – JANUARY 21ST
2022

HERE IS A SIMPLE GUIDE FOR YOU TO USE DURING THE NEXT 21 DAYS. TO START OFF THE NEW YEAR RIGHT, WE ARE ENCOURAGING YOU TO GROW IN YOUR WALK WITH CHRIST IN THREE AREAS: READING, PRAYING, AND FASTING. WE DESIRE FOR THIS TO BE HELPFUL TO YOU AS YOU PURSUE JESUS DAILY.

READING

WHEN

Morning or Evening: Jesus and the psalmists are often found praying in the morning (e.g., Psalm 5:3; Luke 4:42). The evenings less so, but choose a time when you are at your best and most attentive.

Lunch Break: If you have time during your workday to read during your lunch or another break, this might be a perfect way to spend your time.

Anytime: Some of you may have such busy lives that you need to fit it in whenever you can. This is totally normal. Make sure that whatever time you decide to read your Bible that you are in a place where you can focus and reflect on God's Word.

WHAT

Bible Reading Plan: Choose a plan and work the plan. (We suggest using the 1-year Bible). If you miss some days, do not try to catch up. Simply pick up where you left off.

Journal: We recommend using a simple journal that's easy to use. You can find these at just about any store, especially book stores or online.

Pen: Take notes within your Bible or a journal.

HOW

Pray: Ask God to speak to you through his Word, and then expect God to speak. Your approach to God's Word will greatly impact your times of personal worship. Ask God to search your heart and to transform your life.

Read: Take notes as you read. If you have a question or have difficulty understanding something, use the study Bible notes to explore answers.

Journal: (try to limit it to one page per day starting out): Begin a new page by recording the date and Scripture you read on the top line. Write down a verse or two that stood out to you. Stay focused on what God is saying through his Word that intersects with your everyday life. This is not about speculation, private interpretations, or manipulating God's Word to say what you want it to say. This is about bringing Christ to your everyday life based on the truth of God's Word rightly interpreted.

FASTING

What does the Bible say about fasting? Biblical fasting involves abstaining from eating (and/or drinking) for spiritual purposes:

In the Old Testament Israel celebrated certain annual fasts, the most prominent being the Day of Atonement. There were also occasional fasts tied to specific historical events, sometimes individual and sometimes corporate. Here are a few of the occasions for fasting: at a time of grief (1 Sam. 31 :13; Nehemiah 1 :4), at a time of repentance (1 Sam 7:6; 1 Kings 21 :27), as an expression of humility (Ezra 8:21; Psalm 69: 10), and as an expression of a need for God's guidance and help. All of these fasts express a common dependence on God. Several New Testament passages give us insight about fasting.

Fasting teaches us that God's Word nourishes us:

Matthew 4: 1-4 records the only example of Jesus fasting, just prior to his being tempted in the wilderness. He faced temptation with these words,

"Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God." Jesus is quoting Deuteronomy 8:3-5 which talks about the 40 years Israel spent in the wilderness, depending daily on manna to sustain them. He says that God humbled them and let them be hungry in order to teach them to depend on God's Word to sustain them. By His example of fasting, Jesus reminds us that food alone can't sustain us. We need to be nourished by God's Word.

Fasting teaches us that doing God's will sustains us:

John 4:31-35 records Jesus's encounter with the woman at the well. When the disciples return they encourage Jesus to eat. He responds by saying, "I have food to eat that you know not of," then He adds "My food is to do the will of the Father." Again, Jesus reminds us that food alone is not enough. We are sustained by doing God's will.

Fasting teaches us that Jesus Himself sustains us:

In John 6:48-50 Jesus says "I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die." We see this pictured symbolically in the bread and the cup of the Lord's Supper. Jesus is the source of eternal life. Fasting is feasting on Jesus. Jesus commanded that fasting would be a part of His disciple's spiritual life. In Matthew 6:16-18 He says "when you fast," not "if you fast." He warns us not to fast to impress people, but to be near to the heart of God.

Fasting is designed to intensify our dependence on God by weakening our dependence on food and other things.

THE PURPOSE OF FASTING

Fasting reveals and heals our dependence on food (and other things) to fill the discomfort caused by low self-esteem, unfulfilling work, unloving relationships, uncontrollable circumstances, etc. It removes the false peace derived from the pleasure of eating. Richard Foster, in His Classic Celebration of Discipline says, "More than any other discipline, fasting reveals the things that control us. This is a wonderful benefit to the true disciple who longs to be transformed into the image of Jesus Christ. We cover up what is inside us with food and other good things, but in fasting these things surface. If pride controls us, it will be revealed almost immediately." David writes, "I humbled my soul with fasting" (Psalm 69: 10). Anger, bitterness, jealousy, strife, fear- if they are within us, they will surface during fasting."

Fasting teaches us we can go without getting what we want and survive.

Fasting can free us from having to have what we want. Therefore, fasting can teach moderation or self-control, not only in relation to food, but in other areas as well. It teaches contentment (1 Timothy 6:6).

Fasting expresses and deepens our hunger for God.

Richard Foster says, "Fasting reminds us that we are sustained "by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God: (Matt. 4:4). Food does not sustain us; God sustains us. In Christ, "All things hold together" (Col. 1: 17). Therefore, in experiences of fasting we are not so much abstaining from food as we are feasting on the word of God and on Christ Himself. Fasting is feasting. Fasting for other reasons, such as a "spiritual disguise" for losing weight, is an aberration to Biblical fasting.

Fasting to even appear spiritual to others is more akin to the Pharisees than Jesus' instructions. Fasting must always, first and foremost, center on God. It must be about Him.

Step 1: Clarify the Purpose of Your Fast

Why are you fasting? (For the purpose of the 21 Days) Ask the Holy Spirit to clarify His leading and objectives for your prayer fast. This will enable you to pray more specifically and strategically. Fasting is God-led and God-initiated. That means that He fuels a desire to fast and pray. He loves it when we fast.

Step 2: Specify the Nature of Your Fast

Pray about the kind of fast you should undertake. Jesus implied that all of His followers should fast (Matthew 6:16-18; 9:14, 15). For Him it was a matter of when believers would fast, not if they would do it.

Before you fast, decide the following up front:

- How long you will fast – one meal, one day, one week, several weeks, certain days (Beginners should start slowly, building up to longer fasts).
- The type of fast God wants you to undertake – discussed in the Types of Fasts section below.
- What physical or social activities you will restrict.
- How much time each day you will devote to prayer and God's Word.

Step 3: Prepare Your Heart, Mind, and Body for Your Fast

Fasting is not a spur-of-the-moment thing. It is planned and we must prepare.

The very foundation of fasting and prayer is repentance. Un-confessed sin can hinder your prayers. Here are several things you can do to prepare your heart:

Fasting requires reasonable precautions. Consult your physician first, especially if you take prescription medication or have a chronic ailment. Some persons should never fast without professional supervision.

- Do not rush into your fast. Prepare your body. Eat smaller meals before starting a fast. Avoid high-fat and sugary foods. Eat raw fruit and vegetables for two days before starting a fast. Physical preparation makes the drastic change in your eating routine a little easier so that you can turn your full attention to the Lord in prayer.
- Prepare your heart and mind remembering that God is your Father and He loves you and is for you.
- Confess every sin that the Holy Spirit calls to your remembrance and accept God's forgiveness (1 John 1:9). Seek forgiveness from all whom you have offended, and forgive all who have hurt you (Mark 11:25; Luke 11:4; 17:3,4). Make restitution as the Holy Spirit leads you.
- Surrender your life fully to Jesus Christ (Romans 12:1,2). Meditate on the attributes of God, His love, sovereignty, power, wisdom, faithfulness, grace, compassion, and others (Psalm 48:9; 103:1-8, 11-13).
- Begin your time of fasting and prayer with an expectant heart (Hebrews 11:6).
- Do not underestimate spiritual opposition. Satan sometimes intensifies the natural battle between body and spirit (Galatians 5:16, 17).

- Finally, and of deep importance, Jesus instructs us in Matthew to not let others know about your fasting. The strict details of your fast should not be something you constantly talk about to others. It should remain between you and God.

TYPES OF FASTS

Abstaining from certain types of food (meat, sweets, etc.) - Daniel 10:3

This type is a good first step for beginners to fast or those with health needs and special or restrictive diets. Choose to abstain from something like breads, sweets, sodas, coffee, or even red meat. Perhaps spend some time reading through Daniel's fast in Daniel chapter 1 and chapter 10. Stick to only fruits and vegetables like Daniel, or try something similar.

Determine the timing and duration of your fast and begin. You may choose to go without this specific type of food on only certain days like Fridays, or you may go without during the weekdays only or perhaps every day. Finally, choose the duration of your fast. This community wide fast is 21 days but that does not mean you must go without for all of the 21 days. Determine the timing and duration ahead of time and pray through it.

Abstaining from all food (Mathew 4:1-2 Esther 4:16; Acts 9:9)

This kind of fast is more difficult but can be broken up by timing and duration. This seems to be the most prevalent of the fasts we see in the Bible. It is also the most intimidating, but refuse to let it scare you. Fasting from all food is not scary if you determine beforehand when you will do so and for how long.

Here are some ideas:

- Start slowly. Begin with fasting for only a part of a day (lunch, or lunch and dinner). Do this for one day a week, or perhaps three days a week. You determine the timing and duration. Take a step of faith. Fasting is risky and involves our faith.
- Next, try fasting from food but not beverages. This means that according to your timing and duration, you would not eat any solid foods but only water, juices, smoothies, or perhaps simple soup broths.
- Do this for the first one or two weeks. Devote the time that you normally would eat to Scripture reading and prayer. Focus on Jesus' statements about food.
- Next try a 24-hour fast. This means that you get up and eat a good breakfast and drink only water or juice until the following breakfast the next day. Some people like to fast from dinner until dinner the next day. Set aside specific time during normal meal times, if possible to pray and seek God. Finally, you may progress to a two or three day fast. For some, progression may lead to a multi-day, even multi-week fast. But remember the purpose of your fast.

Abstaining from things besides food (Daniel 6:18)

The king's voluntary "fasting" from entertainment in the time of Daniel helps us further understand yet another type of fast.

Fasting from non-food items like entertainment can be particularly helpful and accessible for everyone.

Think of abstaining from television, social media, video games, all reading (except the Bible), music, texting, etc. for the duration of your fast. This can be a very powerful decision even as a supplement to food fasts.

CONCLUSION

Choosing your fasting plan is a very personal decision.

We are all at different places in our walk with God and our spirituality should never be a cause for comparison or competition. There is nothing more “inherently spiritual” about one type of fast as opposed to another. Your personal fast should present a level of challenge to it, but know your body, know your options, and most importantly, seek God in prayer about this and follow what the Holy Spirit leads you to do. It’s also important to not let what you eat or do not eat become the focus of your fast. This is a time to disconnect enough with your regular patterns and habits in order to connect more closely to God.

Try replacing the word fasting with FEASTING ON GOD!

No matter what kind of fast you choose, and even if you choose not to fast, please seek God in prayer and reading.

7 WAYS TO PRAY FOR MY CHURCH

1. Pray for people to come to know Jesus through my witness in my church.
2. Pray for my pastors, elders and church staff.
3. Pray for our Connect group leaders
4. Pray for all our church volunteers.
5. Pray for unity and harmony in my church.
6. Pray for my spiritual growth and contribution in my church.
7. Pray for the increased impact of my church as well as churches around the world.

FIVE WAYS TO PRAY FOR REVIVAL

1. Begin with God calling "unusually large numbers of lost/unchurched men and women to trust in Jesus Christ - raising the level of their esteem for Jesus - and be saved through Him with complete assurance that He is the Son of God.
2. Disrupt the operations and interests of Satan's kingdom, causing men and women to forsake their sin and set their mind, will, and emotions on Godly things found in the Holy Bible.
3. Lead all Christians and even non-Christians to hold a higher regard for the Bible as the true Word of God in all areas of faith, culture, society, and life.
4. Awaken the ability of all people - especially Christians - to discern truth from error, right from wrong and light from darkness, and to speak out against what is contrary to God's word.
5. Lead to a Holy Spirit of manifestation of love for God and for others - love between an individual and the Lord but also a manifestation of God's kind of love between all people in all places.
